

Cheshire Aspergers Parents Support Annual Conference

Monday 19 March 2012

The Holiday Inn, Runcorn WA7 3HA

9 am until 4.15 pm

Main Speaker

Dr Luke Beardon Sheffield Hallam University

Is an Educational Psychologist currently the Senior Lecturer in Autism. His topics will be Behaviour and Sensory Issues

Choice of Two Afternoon Presentations

Dr Andrew Curran Alder Hey Childrens Hospital

Is a Paediatric Neurologist specialising in Autism Spectrum Condition. His topic will be The Neurobiology of Social Cognition, helping to understand children's behaviours and other issues

Sally Slater

She runs 'Springboard' a training and consultancy business and has over 30 years experience in autism and learning difficulties. Her topic will be Challenging Behaviour

Duncan Honeybourne

A professional pianist and teacher with Aspergers Syndrome. A thought-provoking and entertaining speaker about his experience of life on the autism spectrum. His topic will be Relationships, Social rules and the Workplace

Mike Stanton

A teacher of children with severe learning disabilities whose adult son has Aspergers. Mike also runs 'Action For Autism' and is the author of 'Learning to Live with High Functioning Autism'. His topic will be From Adolescence to Adulthood: the Challenge for Parents

Reserve your place for the afternoon sessions, first come first served

Attendance fees are £50 for parents, £35 for ChAPS members and £80 for professionals

Refreshments will be provided throughout the day including a two course hot lunch

For further information and to receive a Conference Application Form, please download it from our website or ring 01928 722384

www.asparents.org.uk

